PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, impetus is being given to the fight against mental illness on both the state and national level, and

WHEREAS, it is time to end the tradition of neglect of the mentally ill, accord to all patients the benefits of modern psychiatric treatment, and develop comprehensive mental health services in the community, and

WHEREAS, there has been enacted legislation providing federal grants to the states to assist them in construction of community mental health centers;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, ARCHIE GUBBRUD, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the month of May, 1964, as in South Dakota, and call upon the citizens of this state to dedicate themselves to carry forward the goals set forth in our programs to help the mentally ill and in the conquest of mental illness.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota to be affixed on this 28th day of April, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and sixty-four.

ARCHIE GUBBRUD, GOVERNOR
